SUMMER SCHOOL 2010

'TO GROW AND LEARN'

"It is the child who makes the adult, and no adult exists who was not made by the child who once was." The "great work of the child" progresses in all seasons. We engage the summer growth spurt and great energies of children in these long days of summer. Accessibility to the play yard allows the release of energies and relaxing atmosphere of the summer in the Northwest. We include neighborhood walks, gardening, and park trips.

Exploration will include literature, music, arts, games, and hands-on practical skills with tools of daily life. Both classes will be a combination of ongoing and new students and we will be forming the classes for the coming school year. Therefore, introductory lessons are included in our summer sessions, preparing children for a familiar transition into the school year.
